Members noted that three applications did not fully comply with the new rules, which had recently come into effect and considered the fairest way of dealing with them in the circumstances.

CG21 Shepley Junior Cricket Club / Shepley Women's Institute / Lepton PCC

Recommendation: That as the new rules had significantly changed the previous long-standing system, the Council is lenient in the way they are applied for this year only.

Recommendation: That the applications for Shepley Junior Cricket Club and Shepley Women's Institute are deferred to the next Committee meeting and the applicants are asked to bring their applications into line with the rules.

Recommendation: That the application from Lepton PCC is accepted.

The meeting then closed.
